

New South Central Regional Library to host artist-in-residence . . .

Opening in late spring 2017, the new South Central Regional Library will feature an artist-in-residence program that will serve to connect the public with art and the people who create it. Funding from Councilwoman Madonna Flood has enabled the creation of the program, including necessary equipment, materials, and a stipend for participating artists.

COLLIDER

ARTIST-IN-RESIDENCE PROGRAM

*All interested artists—including visual arts,
traditional crafts, music, dance, digital art,
and more—are encouraged to apply.*

Applications are due by April 20

*Apply online:
LFPL.org/collider*

Participating COLLIDER artists will be selected by a juried committee.

Join the conversation!

SCAN ME to find out more about COLLIDER.

SOUTH CENTRAL REGIONAL LIBRARY

OPENING LATE SPRING • (502) 964-3515

Visit LFPL.org/collider for more information.